Being in the hire industry, we know there are times when you just can't find the exact right layout, size, shape or quality desired.

To best service NorQuip customers, we introduced fabrications, because our goal is always to get your equipment exactly right and to your specifications.

Whether you need site storage, a self-contained home office or studio, site office, VIP toilet block, or maybe a combination, NorQuip can fabricate to suit your requirements. Find various designs at NorQuip's website, or engage us for a complete custom build.

Whatever it is you need, chances are we can build it.
